RE: Residential Horse Occupancy Survey

Recently there have been concerns raised about the number of horses that can be boarded on residential property within the unincorporated area of Orange Park Acres. The County of Orange is seeking your input on this important issue.

There is currently no County ordinance restricting the number of horses that can be boarded on residential property in unincorporated Orange Park Acres. A number of residents of the area have raised concerns about residential stables which house more than 20 horses on a single lot. Because of health and safety considerations, it has been suggested that the County should establish an ordinance restricting the number of horses per residential property located in unincorporated Orange Park Acres.

In an effort to gauge the opinions of residents in the area, the County of Orange is seeking your response to the questions posed below. Please take a moment to complete the questions and return your comments to the address on the opposite page. If you would like to make additional comments, please include them below or on additional pages.

Thank you for participating in this information gathering process.
